Agri's Got Talent 2020: A time of hope

It is a time of uncertainty and distress in South Africa, and now more than ever we need that glimmer of hope! Enter, Agri's Got Talent.

On the respective forefronts our industry representatives are fighting to ensure that our various agricultural industries and the people within them are both protected from the Covid-19 pandemic, and financial turmoil.

Agri's Got Talent 2020 has an opportunity to be so much more than a singing and skills development competition this year. It has the opportunity to be a form of encouragement, a tool to uplift one another, a means through which agri communities all over South Africa can unify under joyous song, and together, sing of a better and brighter tomorrow!

Caroline Poole, from The Vinpro Foundation, states: "We believe in 'Because People Matter' and it is with this belief that we whole heartedly support Agri's Got Talent and the change that it brings about in the lives of the contestants, their families and their communities."

We encourage (eligible) agricultural workers everywhere to take a leap of faith and enter this year's Agri's Got Talent, who knows, you might just be the musical inspiration that ignites Ubuntu in all of us!

Agri's Got Talent 2020: Hoop in 'n donker tyd

Met die wêreldwye donkerwolke van 'n pandemie wat ook oor Suid-Afrika hang, is 'n silwer randjie van hoop nou meer nodig as ooit. Die randjie is Agri's Got Talent.

Ons onderskeie bedryfsverteenwoordigers werk hard om die landboubedrywe en die mense wat daarby betrokke is teen die Covid-19 pandemie, asook die finansiële onsekerheid wat daarmee gepaard gaan, te beskerm.

Agri's Got Talent 2020 het vanjaar 'n geleentheid om soveel meer as 'n sangkompetisie en vaardigheidsontwikkelingsprogram te wees. Die projek is 'n instrument van motivering, opheffing en vreugde. Dit is 'n platform waardeur sang agri-gemeenskappe oor die hele Suid-Afrika verenig. Saam kan ons sing oor hoop vir die toekoms!

Caroline Poole, van die Vinpro-stigting, sê: "Ons glo in die boodskap: 'Omdat mense van belang is'. Daarom ondersteun ons Agri's Got Talent en die verandering wat dit in die lewens van die deelnemers, hul gesinne en hul gemeenskappe, meebring."

Ons moedig (kwalifiserende) landbouwerkers aan om 'n kans te vat en in te skryf vir Agri's Got Talent 2020. Wie weet, jy is miskien die musikale inspirasie wat help om Ubuntu in ons harte te laat brand!
