Agri's got Talent 2019: TOP TEN ANNOUNCED

It's the moment we have all been waiting for. After many hours of listening to all our gifted entrants, the Agri's Got Talent team, together with voice coach Frieda van den Heever, are proud to announce the Top Ten contestants for our competition this year.

The Top Ten are:

1. Akona Ndevu (Diemersfontein, Wellington)
2. Alicia Winnity Rousseau (Lanko, Joubertina)
3. Magdaleen Philander (Nonna Estate, Worcester)
4. Mario Christoffels (Zandvliet, Ashton)
5. Michael Magaga (Indigo berries, Wellington)
6. Morne Isaacs (Diemersfontein, Wellington)
7. Nonkululeko Sambo (KMI Farming, Nelspruit)
8. Rene Floors (Bosman Adama, Wellington)
9. Samuel Felix (Bakenhof Farm, Wellington)
10. Zenobia Pietersen (Marianne wine Estate, Paarl)

The Agri's got Talent team will be visiting the ten finalists during the month of July in preparation for the competition which culminates in a Gala Evening on 2 August. The project is hosted by HORTGRO, the Vinpro Foundation, South African Table Grape Industry, Citrus Growers' Association and the Western Cape Department of Agriculture.

We wish each finalist all the best for the competition and well done to all the farming entities for the continued support provided to their agricultural workers for participation in the competition. Tickets for the Gala evening can be bought at Computicket or Money Market from 1 July 2019.
